

Oberwolfach Seminars 2003

The Oberwolfach Seminars are a continuation of the DMV Seminars initiated by the Deutsche Mathematiker Vereinigung. They are organized by leading experts in the field and address postdocs and Ph.D. students from all over the world. The aim is to introduce the participants to a particular interesting development. The seminars take place at the Mathematisches Forschungsinstitut Oberwolfach. The number of participants is restricted to 24.

Applications including

- full name and address, including e-mail address
- short CV, present position, university
- name of supervisor of Ph.D. thesis
- a short summary of previous work and interest

should be sent as hard copy or by e-mail (.ps or .pdf file) to:

Navier–Stokes and Related Equations

June 8 – 14, 2003

Diego Cordoba (Madrid), Vladimir Sverak (University of Minnesota)

Deadline for Application: May 1, 2003

Geometry and Combinatorics of Representations of Quivers

June 8 – 14, 2003

Michel Brion (Grenoble), Harm Derksen (Ann Arbor), Hanspeter Kraft (Basel), Christine Riedtmann (Bern)

Deadline for Application: May 1, 2003

Stochastic Modelling and Statistics in Finance with Applications

October 19 – 25, 2003

Ole E. Barndorff-Nielsen (Aarhus), Friedrich Hubalek (Wien), Elisa Nicolato (Aarhus), Neil Shephard (Oxford)

Deadline for Application: September 15, 2003

Computational Algebraic Geometry

November 16 – 22, 2003

Christoph Lossen (Kaiserslautern), Frank Schreyer (Saarbrücken), Frank Sottile (University of Massachusetts)

Deadline for Application: October 15, 2003

Some Mathematical Challenges from Life Sciences

November 16 – 22, 2003

Peter Schuster (Wien), Peter Stadler (Leipzig), Günter Wagner (Yale University)

Deadline for Application: October 15, 2003

The Novikov Conjecture: Geometry and Algebra

January 25 – 31, 2004

Matthias Kreck (Heidelberg), Wolfgang Lück (Münster)

Deadline for Application: December 1, 2003
